Fr. Kevin's Reflection

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is also known as Good Shepherd Sunday because of the Scripture readings and Mass prayers appointed for this day in the Liturgy. Today's Communion Antiphon, for example, proclaims that "The Good Shepherd has risen, Who laid down His life for His sheep and willingly died for His flock, alleluia." The Latin word for shepherd is pastor, and this reveals why the Church asks us to pray for more priests on Good Shepherd Sunday.

The call to the priesthood comes from God, and the Lord has promised always to provide shepherds for His people. In the Book of Jeremiah, the Lord promised Israel: "I will give you shepherds after My own Heart." (Jeremiah 3:15) But He also asks us to seek the gift of pastors in prayer: "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest." (Matthew 9:37-38)

In Africa, in South America, and in Oceania, the number of young men offering themselves for priestly formation is on the rise, in some cases a dramatic rise. As you know already, however, this is not the case in Europe and in North America — the "developed" world — and the disparity points to one of the chief difficulties for the young men among us who are being called today: sometimes the call is not heard because of the noise in which we live. This "noise" takes many shapes (e.g. desire for a lucrative career, fear of loneliness, the presence of so many options that making any choice is difficult, etc), but whatever the source of the noise, if the man being called never hears the call, we may assume he'll never find his place and purpose in life. But even worse than such noise is the failure to live the Christian life with a full understanding of what a radical way of life it is.

The priesthood is not a life for extraordinary men; it is an ordinary Christian way of life for ordinary Christian men. But the key to hearing and answering the call is that the man must understand what it means to be a Christian, to be a disciple of the Jesus. The radical thing is not forsaking marriage and giving one's life to the Church; the radical thing is being baptized and giving one's life to Jesus Christ, knowing that this means following him in the Way of the Cross. When young men grow up in a vibrant Christian community in which the truth of the Catholic faith is a thing for rejoicing and the beauty of the Mass is lived day in and day out as the source and summit of the Christian life, then those who are being called will have no difficulty hearing the summons of the Savior to serve his flock as priests, as shepherds, as pastors.

Spring & Summer Attire – Now that springtime is in the air this is a good time to remember summer will be coming upon us. Of course, the dog days of summer begin the process of changing the winter clothes out with the lighter (more breathable) summer wear. But, before we put everything away...make sure you keep the more appropriate clothes in your closet for church. It is very important to remember: what you may be wearing on the beach or on the deck next to the swimming pool is not the appropriate attire for church. As you begin to sort what to store and what to keep, be sure to leave in your closet clothes that are comfortable...but at the same time..."dressy" in nature. Don't be stuck with tank tops, T-shirts, sandals, flip-flops and shorts as your only option. It is important to be comfortable...but not too comfortable...standing before God. Give more honor and respect than you'd give a prom date.

A PARISH IN LOVE MUST EVANGELIZE

"The Church exists to evangelize." — Pope Paul VI, On Evangelization, 14

Pope John Paul II taught: "The number of those who do not know Christ and do not belong to the Church is constantly on the increase. Indeed, since the end of the Council it has almost doubled. When we consider this immense portion of humanity which is loved by the Father and for whom He sent His Son, the urgency of the Church's mission is obvious". "What moves me even more strongly to proclaim the urgency of missionary evangelization is the fact that it is the primary service which the Church can render to every individual and to all humanity in the modern world". "I sense that the moment has come to commit all of the Church's energies to a new evangelization and to the mission 'ad gentes'. No believer in Christ, no institution of the Church can avoid this supreme duty: to proclaim Christ to all peoples".

When we have deeply experienced Jesus, we evangelize, compelled by the Holy Spirit as at Pentecost (Acts 2:4). Because we believe, we speak out (2 Cor 4:13). If our hearts are overflowing with the love of Jesus, we will speak out of the abundance of our hearts (Lk 6:45). "Surely we cannot help speaking of what we have heard and seen" (Acts 4:20). Those in love share about the one who loves them.

North American Lourdes Volunteers will present a 90-minute VIRTUAL PILGRIMAGE to Lourdes, France, at Holy Cross Catholic Church on Monday, May 9 at 7 pm. During this guided Lourdes experience, you will immerse yourself in the Gospel Message of Lourdes as given by Our Lady to St. Bernadette. You will have the opportunity to touch the Grotto Rock and to experience the healing grace of Lourdes Water. As part of this spiritual opportunity to draw nearer to God with Our Lady and St. Bernadette, you will receive a Eucharistic blessing and pray the Rosary. A Plenary Indulgence is granted to all the faithful, under the usual conditions, who attend a Virtual Pilgrimage with North American Lourdes Volunteers. Come and experience the healing grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ through His Immaculate Mother. Invite your family, children and friends! Our Lady extends her invitation to all!

The next best thing to visiting Lourdes itself is a Pilgrimage journey without the travel!
