Fr. Kevin's Reflection

The idea is that every aspect of human existence was better in the "good old days" than it is today. What childish nonsense! All of us are required to live in the present. The "good old days" are right now. The advances in modern technology and medicine are tremendous. People are living longer than ever before. The quality of life is much better now than in the "good old days."

This Catholic Church of ours, has our spiritual welfare in mind during these forty days. In Lent we rise above childish limitations to appreciate the value of this special liturgical season. The Church sees Lent in terms of three different aspects of our life in faith. The first aspect is: the Pascal Mystery, the sacrificial death and resurrection of Jesus the Christ which brings about our salvation. The Church gives us these forty days as a preparation for the celebration of the great event of Easter. The Pascal Mystery is at the very heart of our faith in Christ ... as the Savior. It is through the Pascal Mystery that the Church came into being.

With the first aspect of Lent comes the second: Christian Initiation. Early in Church history it became clear that the most appropriate time to introduce new members into the faith and Christian community is through the spiritual birth of baptism as the Church was celebrating Her own birth. Lent then became the annual season of preparation for the Sacrament of Baptism.

The third aspect of Lent is: Repentance and Renewal. The Church recognizes that Easter is the time for us Catholics to become reconciled to God and to His Church through the repentance that comes to us in the Sacrament of Penance. Each liturgical year one of the three aspects of Lent take on a prominence. And so during the year of Cycle A it is the turn of repentance to occupy center stage, because of the Gospel of St. Matthew, which features parables about the forgiveness of Jesus. As St. Paul preached repentance to the Romans by explaining how the Lord forgives sinners. "For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves His love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us."

So Jesus suffered, died, and rose for all sinners, even the really bad ones. On this Second Sunday of Lent, we should turn our attention to our need for repentance by going to Confession (which isn't just for the CCD students) as an important part of our preparation for Easter. And giving up treats, snacking between meals, (... or Tweeter, Facebook, etc.) like we did in the "good old days" puts us in the proper penitential frame of mind.
