Fr. Kevin's Reflection

MERRY CHRISTMAS! I love saying that as we celebrate the Epiphany (also known as “a little Christmas” or the feast of the “Three Kings” or the visit of the Magi). As we continue to celebrate the Christmas Season, much of the outside world has moved far beyond Christmas day. I have seen many a Christmas tree already taken down and waiting to be picked up and transformed into mulch. Within the Church, we continue to celebrate the Birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Today is traditionally a day that we pray God's blessings on our homes. Traditionally, (as Father Lance has done in the rectory) you mark the top inside threshold of your entry ways to your house with the initials of the three Kings, along with the year. It would look like this: “20 + C + M + B + 18” – this represents our current new year “2018” along with the initials for the names of the wise men who continue to seek out Jesus (traditionally Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar). Of Course, the other explanation of “C + M + B” is: “Christus mansionem benedicat” or “May Christ bless this dwelling place.”

It is a wonderful opportunity to gather your family in prayer. Perhaps read the Gospel from today again at home (cf. Matthew 2:1–12) and then proceed to mark the top of your thresholds with chalk. (It is a wonderful and special custom to (safely) burn the incense to fill your home with its aroma. Very Old Testament!) Along with the reading and the marking of the threshold, you may wish to offer a prayer of your own asking God to bless your home. Maybe, you may use the following prayer:

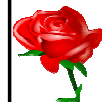

Blessed are You, Lord God of all creation; by the guidance of a star
You led the Magi to Your Child, and by the light of faith You bring us to know
Christ as Lord, the Messiah You have sent.

Bless us as we use this chalk to mark our doors in Your honor;
May our home be a dwelling place of goodness, humility, self-control,
Mutual respect for one another, hospitality toward strangers,
And loving obedience to Your Word.
We ask this through Christ our Lord, AMEN.

If you choose to continue (or to begin for the first time this beautiful custom ... or not), please use this day and this week to pray God's blessing upon your family and upon your home. May God bless you, our Mother Mary watch over you and all the saints intercede for you, always. Happy New Year – 2018!!
