Please join us in Aberdeen for a week-long rosary event in union with all Catholics in America! Rosary Coast-to-Coast is a nation wide movement asking all faithful Catholics to pray for our Church and to ask God's mercy through a most powerful weapon, given by Our Lady--the Rosary! The kick off event will be at 3pm on October 7th at Sacred Heart Church in Aberdeen. We will be praying Divine Mercy Chaplet at Sacred Heart parish, followed by a procession to Saint Mary's while praying the Rosary, and will conclude the Rosary at Saint Mary's parish. This special Coast-to-Coast Rosary rally takes place on the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary.

Please pray the Rosary with your family throughout the week and join us for the culmination event to be held on the 101st anniversary of Our Lady of Fatima, October 13th. This public square Rosary will be held noon at Anderson Park, Aberdeen and will join 23,000 nationwide public square rosary rallies throughout the country though America needs Fatima. We will be offering reparation for the sins and offenses committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary and for the conversion of the United States. We cordially invite all faithful to join us and to bring about conversion through the most Holy Rosary. Questions, contact Ralph Duncan at (605) 252-7367.

Fr. Kevin's Reflection

I hope everyone will pay (or were paying attention) to St. Paul's letter to the Hebrew's this week (and this week's Gospel as well). It is this reading that has caused me to go into so deep a reflection these past few weeks.

When looking back on the reflections, I hope everyone sees that we encountered—in different contexts - a three-stage process. The Mass/liturgy, is characterized by a tension that is inherent in the historical Sacrifice (or Pasch) of Jesus (His Cross and Resurrection) as the foundation of Mass' reality. The ever-abiding form of the liturgy (its source and support) is the historical Pasch of Jesus - His Cross and Resurrection. This once-for-all event has become the ever-abiding form of the liturgy. In the first stage ... the eternal is embodied in what is once-for-all. The second stage ... is the entry of the eternal into our present moment in the liturgical actions. And the third stage ... is the desire of the eternal to take hold of the worshipper's life and ultimately of all historical reality. (This third stage is the message of St. Paul's writings.) The immediate event ... the liturgy ... makes sense and has a meaning for our lives only because it contains the other two dimensions. Past, present and future inter-penetrate each other ... and touch upon eternity. Earlier we became acquainted with the three stages of salvation history, which progresses (as the Church Fathers say) from shadow ... to image ... to reality (or as St. Paul writes: Therefore, he is not ashamed to call them "brothers.") We saw that in our own time, the time of the Church, we were in the middle stage of the movement of history. The curtain of the Temple has been torn. Heaven has been opened up by the union of the man Jesus (and thus of all human existence) with the living God. But this new openness is only mediated by the signs of salvation. We need mediation. As yet we do not see the Jesus "as He is". Now if we put the two three-part processes together ... the historical and the liturgical ... it becomes clear that the liturgy gives precise expression to this historical situation. It expresses the "between-ness" of the time of images, in which we now find ourselves. The theology of the liturgy and Mass is in a special way "symbolic theology", a theology of symbols, which connects us to what is present ... but hidden. Yes, it is a Mystery!

So, (like all the mystery shows we love to watch on TV) we finally discover the answer to the question with which we started. After the tearing of the Temple curtain and the opening up of the Heart of God in the pierced Heart of the Crucified Jesus, do we still need sacred space, sacred time, mediating symbols? Yes, we do need them, precisely so that, through the "image", through the sign ... we learn to see the openness of heaven. We need them to give us the capacity to know the mystery of God in the pierced Heart of the Crucified. Christian liturgy is no longer replacement worship but the coming of the representative Redeemer to us, an entry into His representation that is an entry into reality itself. We do indeed participate in the heavenly liturgy, but this participation is mediated to us through earthly signs, which the Redeemer has shown to us as the place where His reality is to be found. In liturgical celebration there is a kind of turning around of departure to return, of God's descent to our ascent. The liturgy is the means by which earthly time is inserted into the time of Jesus Christ and into its present. It is the turning point in the process of redemption. The Shepherd takes the lost sheep onto His shoulders and carries each of us home.

Melissa's help is needed on the Sauer Family farm during harvest. Melissa will only be in the office during the mornings on Tuesday's Wednesday's & Friday's, unless rain shuts down combining for the day. Sorry for any inconvenience.
