"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." (Rev 22:13)

This is a reminder of how we should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week—putting God first in all that we do. Not only when I am at Mass and parish activities, but when I am in the world, at work or at school. Living gratefully and generously is a lifestyle; it should influence how I make all my daily decisions.

Fr. Kevin's Reflection

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord Jesus into Heaven — traditionally celebrated forty days after Easter, as found in the Gospels. Today's feast looks backward and forward at the same time. Just forty days ago we sang joyful Easter 'Alleluia's as we recalled the Lord's Resurrection from the dead.

As we celebrate today's feast we look forward to next week's celebration of Pentecost and coming of the Holy Spirit, the beginning of the Church's Mission to bring the Gospel to the whole world. Today's feast is like a directional arrow that points us from the first event to the second. At His Ascension, the Lord Jesus ... Risen triumphantly from the dead ... returns to the Father in glory. But, as He leaves the Apostles He makes a promise. He promises His continued presence through His Holy Spirit, Who He will send on Pentecost. With the coming of the Spirit, the mission of the Church begins and the Gospel is brought to the ends of the earth.

I always think of the attribute given to Saint Francis of Assisi: Preach the Gospel constantly, and only occasionally use words! That's the message, the challenge, and the invitation of today's feast. Will you accept the Lord's challenge? More about this question ... next week as we celebrate Pentecost Sunday - the Birthday of the Catholic Church.

Anniversary Wishes to David & Sheila VonWald as they celebrate their 50th Anniversary on Friday, June 7, 2019.

Prayer for a new bishop

Heavenly Father, you sent Jesus to shepherd your people and the Holy Spirit to make your people one. Look with favor upon those who will select our new bishop. Give them your vision and let their judgment be clear. Speak your will to them. We thank you for our past shepherds and the blessings they have been for the people of this diocese. Lord, send your Holy Spirit to anoint our new bishop that he may continue the work of renewal in the Church, and unite our parishes, priests and people in love, truth and wisdom. Give him a true shepherd's heart like that of Jesus, that he may give strength to the weak, heal the brokenhearted, console the lonely, bring back the wandering and be a power against the evil of our day. In the powerful name of Jesus we pray. Amen.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intentions for June

Evangelization: That priests, through the modesty and humility of their lives, commit themselves actively to a solidarity with those who are most poor.
