Just a bit from Fr. Schmidt

This week, we celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into heaven, the oldest Marian Feast on the calendar. In the East, it is more often called the Dormition, or "falling asleep" of Mary, recalling that she was preserved throughout her life from original sin and from any personal sin. Free from sin, like Jesus her Son, she was not subject to death in the way that we are. Death is one of the consequences of sin, so being without sin, she did not have to die. If Mary died, it was not from any necessity but allowed by God to unite her more closely with the Death and Resurrection of Jesus, who freely accepted Death upon the Cross for our salvation.

Whether she died or not, what we know for sure is that at the end of Mary's earthly life, she was assumed, taken up, body and soul into the glory of heaven. "Go up, O Lord, to your resting place; you and the ark of your strength" (Psalm 132:8). Mary was the incorruptible Ark of the New Covenant. The old Ark of the Covenant in the Temple contained the stone tablets of the Ten Commandments, the staff of the high priest Aaron, and a jar of manna that fed the Israelites in the desert. Mary, the New Ark, housed in her womb for nine months Jesus Christ, God in the Flesh. She bore the eternal Logos, the Law that shapes and governs all that exists, the High Priest and Mediator of a New and Eternal Covenant, He whose Flesh is the Bread from heaven that sustains us for everlasting life.

The Assumption is a holy day of obligation. We'll have Mass at 7pm on Wednesday in Hoven and at 7 pm on Thursday in Bowdle. Hopefully everyone is able to make it to one of those times. Attendance at the Supreme Sacrifice of Christ in the Mass on every Sunday and holy day of obligation should be the priority of our spiritual lives. Except when serious obstacles arise, failure to keep the Lord's Day holy in this way is a grave sin. Travel or being out of town, vacations or sporting events are not excuses. What does our effort or lack of effort to get to Mass say to God about how much we really value our relationship with Him? When we're willing to go such distances and bear with such inconveniences for work, shopping, or sports, should we not be willing to endure much more for the Body and Blood of Christ?

I wanted to mention that I usually post my homilies and other writings to a website, if you ever want to read over them or share them. Go to thewordproclaimed.wordpress.com

Have a great week!

Fr. Schmidt

At the Abbey of the Hills, as you can imagine, our heating costs for the 100 sq. ft. building are astronomical. The heat for the building is currently generated by 1970s boilers, and they are showing their age. If we convert our old boilers with new higher efficient Liquid Propane (LP) Boilers, the Abbey will save approximately $9,000 in heating expenses per year! Goal is $80,000 raised so far $43,000.
