Word of Life

"In a striking way, we see today a heightening of the tension between our nation's founding principles and political reality. We see this in diminishing respect for the inalienable right to life and in the elimination of legal protections for those who are most vulnerable. There can be no genuine justice in our society until the truths on which our nation was founded are more perfectly realized in our culture and law."

Just a bit from Fr. Schmidt

Catholic Calisthenics

One thing that tends to be rather noticeable to non-Catholic visitors at Mass is just how often we stand, sit, kneel, and stand. But this really should not be surprising to anyone who reads the Gospel carefully. Hearing of Jesus approaching, people frequently stand up and prepare themselves to meet the Lord. After healing the lame or the sick, Jesus often tells them to stand. It's not surprising, then, that we stand at various parts of the Mass. We stand to greet the Lord who speaks and draws near to us through the words of His Gospel, through the prayers of His Church, and in the ministry of His deacons and priests.

One time that Jesus has the crowds sit is when He feeds them by multiplying the loaves and fish. But "man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God" (Matthew 4:4). Besides the Gospel, God feeds us with the other words of Scripture, from the Old Testament, with Psalms, and from the rest of the New Testament. We sit during these first readings at Mass and during the homily to be receptive to the words that come from our heavenly Father. Even as He fed His people in the wilderness with bread from heaven, He still seeks to nourish and free us with His truth.

Those who draw closest to Jesus in the Gospel are frequently found kneeling before Him, begging for forgiveness and healing, giving thanks to Him with grateful hearts, and worshipping Him as their Lord and God. We kneel during the Eucharistic Prayer and during Holy Communion when Jesus draws closest, in the very substance of His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. Not everyone has full use of all their joints, so it's not always possible for everyone to adopt the same posture at Mass. More important than an external uniformity is that we are united in the internal dispositions of gratitude, adoration, and openness to God. When receiving the Eucharist in Holy Communion, we may do so while standing or kneeling.

As spiritual and physical beings, our posture at Mass and during personal prayer can be a helpful reminder to focus and offer even our bodies in worship of God. "Stand and raise your heads, because your redemption draws near" (Luke 21:28).

40 Days for Life Fall Campaign is Sept 25-Nov 3.

Please join in prayer and fasting with people from around the world for an end to abortion. Since it started in 2007 16,004 lives saved, 104 abortion clinics closed, 191 abortion workers quit. www.40daysforlife.com

We remember our sister in Christ, Elizabeth 'Betty' Heyd, who was called home to the Lord on Sunday, September 22. Her funeral Mass was held on Friday, September 27, 2019 at Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Leola. Her burial was at St Augustine Cemetery, Bowdle. We offer our prayers and support to her family. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through Your mercy, rest in peace. Amen.
