With St. Anthony's Bazaar just around the corner, it is heartwarming to see how well things are coming together. Thanks to the many volunteers! And thanks also to Jeanne Arbach, who fell through the cracks when I thanked those who helped clean between priests at the rectory.—Altar Society Secretary Gloria Duenwald

Word of Life

"By our baptism, we are members of Christ's body and sharers in his mission. Imitating Christ, we must care for all members of our communities, honoring each person as unique, sacred, and created in the image of God."

NOTE: Some Dioceses around the country are reporting that MANY are getting these types of scam emails. Just wanted to warn everyone that our parishes/priests/deacons/staff could also be targeted with emails such as these. IF you get an email requesting cash, gift cards, or urgent-suspicious requests for donations make sure and do your homework before clicking on links or donating. Also beware of bogus sites/requests for Hurricane Dorian relief, unfortunately there are people (scammers) who wait for opportunities to scam good intentioned donors. Some even use well known organizations claiming they work for them when in fact it is a lie. Ask questions! Ask specifically what the donation would be used for. Beware!

Lifelong Learning

With school getting back into full swing, daylight hours fading away, and temperatures becoming milder or even, according to some, colder, autumn seems to be on its way already. Summer has flown by, as usual, and the equinox is less than a couple weeks away. It's been a few years since I've had to go back to school in the fall, but I always think back to those days.

There's still so much that God desires to teach me and each one of us, no matter how many years we've been out of school. One of the greatest things about being a priest is having the privilege to meet and get to know so many outstanding people and to begin to see the wonderful ways in which God works in our lives. If we're open to it, God teaches us every day through the events and people we encounter.

Our exams may be less formal than for those still in school, our assignments less academic, but in many ways we're called to remain students throughout our entire lives. The concept of lifelong learning has been around for many years and takes many forms. The Vatican has also written about the ongoing formation of priests, even after their years of formal seminary education. Blessed John Henry Newman once wrote, "In a higher world it is otherwise, but here below to live is to change, and to be perfect is to have changed often" (On the Development of Christian Doctrine, 40). I hope that we can always keep an open mind and continue to learn from everything and everyone that God puts in our lives, even from the most difficult trials and from people with whom we disagree.

For all of us, our "One Teacher is the Christ," the Truth in Person (Matthew 23:10). And there's just one final exam that will really matter. "At the end of life, we will not be judged by how many diplomas we have received, how much money we have made, how many great things we have done. We will be judged by, 'I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat; I was naked, and you clothed me; I was homeless, and you took me in'" (St. Teresa of Calcutta). "At the evening of life, we shall be judged on our love" (St. John of the Cross, Sayings 64). May God teach us to love not only "in word and speech, but in deed and truth" (1 John 3:18).

Keep at it.

Fr. Schmidt

Congratulations to our newest Christian, Kemry Lynn Ulrich, daughter of Tyler and Brooke, on receiving the Sacrament of Baptism on Sat Aug 31, 2019 at St. Anthony's, Hoven. God bless all parents who are the first teachers of the Faith for their children.
