Word of Life

"An unexpected pregnancy can be a difficult and frightening time, and it's important that your friend knows you are thinking of her and supporting her. ...don't forget the most important thing is to pray. Even if it's just a quick two-second prayer, prayer is the most effective way we can help. Pray for her, for her child, and for guidance in how you can give her the best possible support."

January 12, 2020—Baptism of the Lord

And a voice came from the heavens, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." (Matthew 3:17)

Two thoughts come to mind when reading this. First, God, Our Father, is so generous, that he gave his only son, whom he really loves, to us so that we can have eternal life with him in heaven. God, Our Creator, really loves us, too! Second, Jesus was obedient to his Father's will even to the point of death. This is a reminder that our own lives are pure gifts from God and meant to serve God and others.

End of the Year Contribution Statements for the parishioners have been mailed out. Look it over and if you have any concerns please contact Melissa. If your mailing address has changed please let her know that also. Thank you to all those who have given to support the churches. Also for the many volunteer hours so many have given by helping with ministries, cleaning, serving, providing food, setting up and taking down for various functions! Your efforts are so appreciated and many times thank you go unspoken. Thank You, Thank You, THANK YOU!

Beacon and Refuge of Hope

When all your plans are falling apart and nothing in life seems to be going your way, what is your unshakable foundation? When all the world around you is spinning out of control and acts of terror and senseless violence surround us on every side, where can we find peace? As I was growing up, I found the answer to these questions in a small chapel in my hometown of Elk Point. I was kind of amazed one day to discover that no matter what was going on in my life, no matter what changes or challenges or tragedies, one thing always remained the same through it all. One Person was always there for me, in exactly the same place, waiting for me.

Jesus Christ, "the same yesterday, today, and forever," stood out to me as a Beacon of hope in every tabernacle of every church throughout the world (Hebrews 13:8). The faint red glow of every sanctuary lamp stood out as a solitary light in the midst of this world of darkness. And as long as there would be priests to offer the one sacrifice of the Mass, Jesus would be there, waiting for each one of us, wanting to be our peace and our hope in the midst of a troubled world.

I'm not sure if this realization is a part of every vocation to the priesthood, but as I knelt in that small chapel in Elk Point, I knew that there would be nothing else more worthwhile than for my life to become another link in that chain, "so that from the rising of the sun to its setting a pure sacrifice may be offered," and another generation of the Church may enjoy the light of His Eucharistic Presence (Roman Missal, Eucharistic Prayer III).

A time-honored tradition is to make the sign of the cross whenever passing a Catholic church as a sign of reverence for Jesus, present inside the tabernacle. If we have time, we should even go inside to pay a visit, even if it's brief and just a word of greeting and thanks to our Eucharistic King. He always likes it when we stop by, and He has special graces for those who do. During this new year, let's try to grow in these daily habits of honoring Christ, including being deliberate about genuflecting toward Jesus in the tabernacle when we're in church (at least for those of us whose knees still function). "Blessed be Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament of the altar."

Please Note: Rectory may close early or be closed for the day, during inclement weather. Feel free to submit an email or leave a voicemail. Judy and Melissa will take care of business as soon as they are able to make it back in the office.
