Just a bit from Fr. Schmidt

It won't be long now...

As I was growing up, my parents always just called each other Mom and Dad, so you can imagine my surprise the other day when I found out that my mom actually has a first name of her own. And if I mention that my parents now have a dog from Kansas named Toto, you might even be able to guess what my mom's name is. What brings it to mind is that St. Dorothy's feast day was this past Thursday, February 6, which I actually knew this year before my mom mentioned it.

I've been learning more about the old calendar of feasts and which Saints died on each day as I read the Roman Martyrology. It's fascinating to learn just a bit about these Saints, sometimes only their names, but each representing a life given over to Christ. Also on the old calendar of feasts, today's Mass wouldn't just be another Sunday in Ordinary Time. It was actually the beginning of a sort of pre-Lenten season. As Lent refers to the approximately 40 days prior to Easter, Septuagesima Sunday comes from the Greek word for 70, being about 70 days from the Octave of Easter.

This Pre-Lent was observed in various ways. It's good to begin considering what we plan to give up or to do as extra prayer, fasting, and almsgiving when we reach Ash Wednesday, now less than 3 weeks away. You might even try some of your penances out in advance, to try and ease yourself into it. On the other hand, perhaps more common is to observe the next few weeks as the season of carnival, culminating with Mardi Gras, French for "Fat Tuesday." Anticipating the long days of penance that Lent would bring, people made sure to get their feasting in beforehand, also an occasion in many places for parades, dancing, and music.

However we decide to spend these final weeks before Lent, it goes quickly. Don't let Ash Wednesday catch you off guard this year. Spend some time in prayer, really asking God what He would like you to do, so that you and our parishes and our Catholic Church throughout the world can experience a real renewal this year, as we look forward to the matchless gift of our salvation, the victory of Life over death, the Resurrection of Jesus, our Easter Joy. Renewal in the Church and in our state and country begins with your relationship with Jesus Christ.

Saturday February 22nd at 10:00 we will meet in the church basement to clean and organize the storage room. This should help make it easier to locate cleaning and all other supplies. All Altar Society ladies welcome. Thank you. Margy
