Give Thanks in All Circumstances

You're no doubt aware that the year 2020 is not getting the best reviews, and that's unlikely to change by the end of the year or as we look back on it in the future. All the more reason for us to really be deliberate about focusing on the blessings of God that this year has brought, "for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus: to give thanks in every circumstance" (1 Thess. 5:18).

Those who celebrated one of the first Thanksgiving meals in the New World were definitely not without hardships and tragedies of their own at the time. Think of how severely European diseases swept through and ravaged native populations. Think of the challenges the settlers faced to yield even a meager harvest in a new and unfamiliar environment, without the machinery, sprays, or insurance that we so often rely upon today. And thinking of all the summers and winters they endured should at least make us thankful for things we so often take for granted, including electricity and indoor plumbing.

But despite their hardships—and perhaps in a lot of ways, even because of their hardships—they gave thanks to God, who is able to bring life even out of death, and growth and maturity through the endurance of various trials and setbacks. Hopefully this year has been an opportunity for growth and purification in our spiritual lives, greater insight and commitment to those things that are truly important in this life and for the life to come. Whatever this year has been, and whatever it could still prove to be, we must give thanks to God who gives us life and light each day.

The word Eucharist is from the Greek word for thanksgiving, and we are especially thankful for the Gift of Christ's Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity that He continues to faithfully provide for us upon the altars of His Church. May Jesus help us to recognize and never take for granted the blessings that surround us each day.

NOTICE: We are not having regular group sessions of RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) this year, but if you know of someone interested in learning more about the Catholic faith or joining the Church, or any adult Catholics who have not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation, please have them contact Father Schmidt by phone or email for individual instruction.
