Just a bit from Fr. Schmidt

The O Antiphons

The second part of the season of Advent starts on December 17, when the Lectionary readings shift to a more explicit focus on the Nativity of Christ in Bethlehem rather than on the return of Christ at the end of the world. December 17 is also when the O Antiphons begin, used with the Magnificat (the Gospel Canticle of Mary) at Vespers on these days, at least since the eighth century. These O Antiphons name seven Messianic titles of Jesus, expressive of the expectations of the Jewish people and indeed of all humanity. The "O" is the interjection that begins each phrase as a way of greeting and addressing Jesus.

The O Antiphons are probably best known through the popular hymn "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," which summarizes them quite well. The titles given on successive days also form what's called an acrostic, where the initial letters spell out a word or, in this case, a phrase. The titles given in order are

Sapientia (Wisdom)

Adonai (Lord)

Radix Jesse (Root of Jesse)

Clavis David (Key of David)

Oriens (Dawn/Rising Sun in the East)

Rex Gentium (King of the Gentiles/Nations)

Emmanuel (God-with-us)

The Latin phrase spelled out (backwards, from bottom to top) is Ero cras, which means, "I will be there tomorrow." With the eager expectation of an often dark and lonely world, we keep watch in these final days for the dawning of Christmas joy. Do not grow weary in hope, but know with certainty that in the Lord, we shall not be disappointed.

Save the Date

Help us celebrate our final farewell Mass Sunday, June 13, 2021 @ 3:00 PM @ St John the Baptist Church, Onaka. Bishop Donald DeGrood will be in attendance. A reception and fellowship to follow held at the Onaka Park. Everyone welcome! Dress up and look fancy if you can. Memories of people and events of St John are forever held in our minds and hearts.
