Top 10 of 2020

This probably won't go down in history as the most popular year of all time, but like every year, it's had its challenges, blessings, and definitely its memorable moments. Here have been some of the highlights for me:

10. Having a laser shot into my eye to fix a couple peripheral retinal holes. Not the most pleasant experience, but a first for me. At the follow-up last week, everything looked good.
9. Beginning a study of the Psalms for our Bible study. Anyone who has attended knows it involves a lot of other books of the Bible as well, salvation history, language, and things more tangential. We've almost reached Psalm 50.
8. Composing an original chant melody for the Entrance Antiphon of Palm Sunday, probably never to be used again, as the simple entrance is rarely used and was only required this year due to the pandemic. Not how I imagined my first Holy Week liturgies as a pastor, but I'm used to having to make adjustments.
7. Living in Bowdle and Hoven during this time of pandemic and riots. Even as close as Gettysburg, though, they had demonstrations for George Floyd. An uncle of his lives there, as I understand it. But there's never been a better time to live away from the degeneracy and population density of bigger cities.
6. Generally good health, aside from minor sinus and allergy issues, but I've yet to lose my senses of smell and taste.

5. Conferring the Sacrament of Confirmation for the first time (and for around the twentieth time), as I had to carry it out for the candidates of both parishes last spring.

4. Attending our new Bishop's Ordination in February and being able to show him a bit of our parishes when he visited in the spring. I'm very grateful to have such a great pastor as our Bishop, and one from a farm of rural Minnesota.

3. Celebrating a Schmidt Thanksgiving in Aberdeen with two of my brothers and their crazy families. I'm aware that many others around the country were not as fortunate or able to gather as they usually would.

2. Celebrating my parents' 50th Wedding Anniversary last June, although we had to postpone the large family gathering until next summer. They've always been outstanding witnesses to faithful love and openness to God's will in their lives.

1. Continuing to serve as pastor to two of the finest parishes and three beautiful churches in the Great Plains of South Dakota.

Many thanks to you and your families and blessings upon you as we enter 2021!
