

Word of Life Intercessions for Life

Final Lent and Ukraine Funds

If this were your last Lent on earth, would you be living it differently? Would you spend more time in prayer, in the church, with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament? Would you do more serious fasting and almsgiving? Would you make more of an effort to forgive and to mend relationships that have become estranged? Would you spend more time with people and less time with things? If you don't have time this year, do you expect that to change by next year or the year after or before you run out of years?

At the end of our lives, if we just tell God we didn't have enough time, if He actually reviews with us how we spent the time we had, how many hours, weeks, years will we have spent staring at screens? Or getting worked up about things beyond our influence and responsibility? Spending ourselves on things that pass away or even lead us away from heaven. If this were your last Lent on earth, would you be living it differently? By the time it is your last Lent, you won't get another chance to live it differently.

One very timely opportunity for almsgiving this year is to help the people on the ground in Ukraine. The USCCB has an already established subcommittee and annual Collection to Aid the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. Because of its network and history in the area, Bishop DeGrood has recommended contributing to this fund to allow for the most effective use of contributions in the places where they are most needed. If you would like to contribute to this fund through the regular parish collection, please place such contributions in their own envelope labeled with "Ukraine."

The Knights of Columbus have also established a Ukraine Solidarity Fund and have a presence in Poland and Ukraine able to give assistance on the ground through the local parishes. You can donate to that fund on their website: www.kofc.org. War always involves the suffering of innocent people and non-combatants, the suffering of many poor people even throughout the world as energy prices go up. Please continue to pray for a swift and peaceful resolution that will last. "Grant peace in our time, O Lord."
