

Word of Life Intercessions for Life
Dec 18 ~ Fourth Sunday of Advent

For all parents awaiting the birth of their child:
May they look to the Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph and follow their example of cherishing and protecting human life;

We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

Congratulations to our newest Christian, Kennedy Jean Osborne, daughter of William & Megan, on receiving the Sacrament of Baptism on Sun December 11, 2022 at St. Augustine, Bowdle. God bless all parents who are the first teachers of the Faith for their children.

Please support the Society of St. Vincent de Paul - Sioux Falls which serves East River South Dakota. The Society, a 501 3(c) organization is building its 2nd store location on the West side of Sioux Falls and will offer FREE diapers and wipes at the new location as well as the current East side location. The 2nd location will allow us to serve a larger population with gently used clothing, household goods, furniture items and more. In an effort to raise funds for the capital building fund we have an anonymous donor willing to match up to $100,000 in donations received by December 31, 2022. Donations in any amount can be sent to:
St. Vincent de Paul
Attn: Dorothy Garcia, Treasurer
431 N. Cliff Ave.
Sioux Falls, SD 57103

Please include "West Side Store" on the memo line

We serve people of all churches and faiths and appreciate any support you provide in helping us spread the word about our wonderful organization and its growth.

Just a bit from Fr. Schmidt

"Be There Tomorrow"

The second part of the season of Advent starts on December 17, when the Lectionary readings shift to a more explicit focus on the Nativity of Christ in Bethlehem rather than on the return of Christ at the end of the world. December 17 is also when the O Antiphons begin, used with the Magnificat (the Gospel Canticle of Mary) at Vespers on these days, at least since the eighth century. These O Antiphons name seven Messianic titles of Jesus, expressive of the expectations of the Jewish people and indeed of all humanity. The "O" is the interjection that begins each phrase as a way of greeting and addressing Jesus.

The O Antiphons are probably best known through the popular hymn "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," which summarizes them quite well. The titles given on successive days also form what's called an acrostic, where the initial letters spell out a word or, in this case, a phrase. The titles given in order are

Sapientia (Wisdom)
Adonai (Lord)
Radix Iesse (Root of Jesse)
Clavis David (Key of David)
Oriens (Dawn/Rising Sun in the East)
Rex Gentium (King of the Gentiles/Nations)
Emmanuel (God-with-us)

The Latin phrase spelled out (backwards, from bottom to top) is Ero cras, which means, "I will be there tomorrow." With the eager expectation of an often dark and lonely world, we keep watch in these final days for the dawning of Christmas joy. Do not grow weary in hope, but know with certainty that in the Lord, we shall not be disappointed.
