

Word of Life Intercessions for Life
Feb 19 ~ 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

For married couples struggling with infertility:
May the Lord help them trust in His love and sustain them with His peace;

We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

We remember our sister in Christ, Tricia Schmidt, who was called home to the Lord on Tues, Feb 7. Her funeral Mass was held on Mon February 13, 2023 at Lien Funeral Home, Bowdle. We offer our prayers and support to her family. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through Your mercy, rest in peace. Amen.

Would you consider Mass Intentions for Bowdle? There are weekdays, Saturday mornings, Sunday 10 AM Sunday dates available at St Augustine for 2023. If you would like to have a Mass prayed for someone living or deceased, or some need or in thanksgiving, the suggested donation is $10 per Mass Intention. You may call Melissa at office to see what is available or drop a note in the collection basket. It is very helpful to have some intentions not scheduled and when a date is available it can be scheduled and prayed for on short notice. It is greatly appreciated!!

Word of Life

"We often assume parenthood happens easily after 'I do,' but many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens. Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility... If you experience difficulty bringing a child into your family, know that you are not alone. God is with you, and his Church desires to walk with you... God has a beautiful plan for your life as a married couple."

Just a bit from Fr. Schmidt

The Father of Mercies

For over 20 years now, the Catholic Church of the English-speaking world has been updating our translation of the various ritual books from the Latin typical editions. It actually started in 2002 with the publication of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (3rd edition), both because of new editions in Latin that had never fully been translated into English and to bring translation into conformity with the new instruction Liturgiam authenticam (2001) from Rome. Most Catholics at least noticed when the Missal itself was updated, leading into 2011. Otherwise, they are still responding with, "And also with you."

The latest is an updating of the Order of Penance or the sacrament of Confession and Reconciliation. Among those that remain to be updated still in the near future include the Pastoral Care of the Sick (mainly the Anointing of the Sick) and a second edition of The Liturgy of the Hours, which is still tentatively expected around 2025. The new Order of Penance can be used beginning on Ash Wednesday of this year and must be used on and after Divine Mercy Sunday.

There are only a couple small changes to the hopefully familiar words of absolution and a few other minor tweaks here and there. I've put the changes in italics:

"God, the Father of mercies, through the Death and Resurrection of his Son has reconciled the world to himself and poured out the Holy Spirit for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church may God grant you pardon and peace. And I absolve you from your sins, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit." R. Amen.

"Sent forth... among us" was changed to "poured out," and "give" to "grant." These changes are both a more faithful rendering into English of the Latin prayer and more reminiscent of the expressions found in Scripture. Isaiah 44:3, Joel 2:28, and Romans 5:5 all mention the Holy Spirit being "poured out" upon God's chosen ones. Jesus uses the image of "living water" (John 4:10; 7:38). As we enter into the holy season of Lent, may our parishes, families, and each of our hearts and minds receive a new outpouring of the Holy Spirit to know and follow God's will, to the praise of His great glory.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intentions for February For Parishes

We pray that parishes, placing communion at the centre, may increasingly become communities of faith, fraternity and welcome towards those most in need.
